

"Creating the Cocoa Generation"

The Grenada Chocolate Fest returns! May 13th to 22nd 2016

The Grenada Chocolate Fest celebrates the island's delicious organic and ethically produced cocoa and chocolate. Back for a third year, the festival is a perfect experience for all those who have a passion for dark chocolate.

Learn how Grenada's chocolate artisans craft their famous ethical "tree to bar" products. Take a journey through the island's rich history and visit cocoa farms nestled in its lush Caribbean rain forest....dance the cocoa or be a cocoa farmer for a day. Jam by the turquoise sea at sunset, and run through a cocoa forest! And when you are ready to relax and unwind, indulge in some authentic chocolate-inspired cuisine and luxuriate in cocoa-infused island life!

Friday 13th "Get In the Mood for Chocolate"

Day - Visit Grenada's House of Chocolate in historic St George's. Get information and tickets for the festival, try delicious homemade bonbons and truffles and a cup of delicious cocoa tea, buy some of your chocolate supplies for the week!

Night - Opening at Dodgy Dock, True Blue Bay Resort. Party with the locals, dancing to the happy rhythms of Grenada. Look out for delicious savory & sweet dishes prepared with our organic cocoa and chocolate. Experience our delicious chocolate scented rums & chocolate beer; meet some of the key Grenada cocoa farmers & chocolatiers and participate in the Charity Silent Auction for Vendome RC School.

Saturday 14th "Healthy Benefits of Cocoa"

Day - Begin with an inspiring yoga session and cocoa tea meditation followed by a gloriously indulgent chocolate breakfast. Find out about the health benefits of chocolate by making magic chocolate potions that are good for you. Get tempted by local organic beauty products and treatments at True Blue Bay Resort and Sankalpa Yoga Studio.

Evening "The Chocolate Hash" Join the Grenada Hash House Harriers on their weekly "hash" running (or walking) through a cocoa plantation in the countryside, not for the faint-hearted!

Sunday 15th "One Love - Jammin' by Pink Gin Beach"

Day - Kick back and relax at the famous Aquarium Restaurant overlooking the turquoise waters of Pink Gin Beach. Indulge in mouth-watering cuisine and sway until sunset to the reggae rhythms! Taste Local Rums and sample Grenada's organic chocolates and other local chocolate treats.

Monday 16th "It's all about Bean To Bar"

Day - Visit the magnificent Belmont Estate, a beautiful authentic 17th century cocoa plantation. The story of cocoa bean to chocolate bar is brought to life as methods of fermenting, drying and polishing the beans, walking in the drying trays and dancing in the old copper pots are demonstrated. Mouthwatering chocolate tasting and bonbons from Grenada Chocolate Company complete a perfect day.

Night - Meet at the West Indies Beer Company brewery-bar for a pint of chocolate beer and other 'cocoatails', delicious food, dance and Caribbean tunes.

Tuesday 17th "Cook it up"

Day – Start with a unique chocolate, cacao and spice tasting session by expert chocolatiers, followed by cooking your own chocolate inspired lunch, guided by local cooks and Food Channel stars, Esther and Omega, using fresh local produce, chocolate, cocoa and spices at True Blue Bay Resort.

Evening – Chill at the Art & Soul Gallery with Cocoa Art Exhibition, chocolate and rum punch tasting.

Wednesday 18th “Design Your Own Chocolate Bar”

Day – Take a tour of Diamond Estate Chocolate Factory and design your very own chocolate bar with the help of their expert chocolatiers; visit their cocoa shop and enjoy one of their delicious and refreshing drinks. Getting hungry? Lunch is served a short drive away on the verandah at Petite Anse Restaurant with heart-stopping views of the Grenadine islands and surprise chocolate treats. Bring your swim gear to have a refreshing plunge by the pool.

Evening Street Food Wednesday at Dodgy Dock, have a taste of Grenada’s cuisine listening to the tunes of some of Grenada’s rising stars.

Thursday 19th “Creating Generation Cocoa”

Day Cocoa Chocolate workshops and talks at National Museum and House of Chocolate. Mingle with school kids learning about cocoa, bring books or school materials for the schools or make a donation. Visit the House of Chocolate next door and learn about the history of cocoa in Grenada.

Chocolate Talks Followed by Gala Tasting

Enjoy this fabulous night at the exclusive La Luna Resort, learn about Bean to Bar chocolate making while enjoying delicious boutique chocolates and cocktails! Stay for dinner at this Grenadian famous and beautiful boutique resort.

Friday 20th “Let’s Get to Work”

Day – Be a farmer for a day at Crayfish Bay Organic Farm. Join the team, learn how to pick cocoa pods, harvest the beans and prepare them for processing.

Evening “Sunset Bonfire, Drumming and Chocolate” Soak up the atmosphere and sway to the beat of local drums around a bonfire. Sample delicious chocolate treats, aromatic local rums and exotic tropical cocktails at Mt. Cinnamon Beach Cabana at Grand Anse Beach.

Saturday 21st “Chocolate Extravaganza” Last day Party!

Day – Chocolate and the Chakras Yoga Meditation at Sankalpa Studio

Evening The final big event at Dodgy Dock! Arts and Crafts Bazaar with Grenada’s best artisans where you can purchase wonderful art, crafts and souvenirs to commemorate your time at the Chocolate Fest, Grenadian chefs will “cook up a storm” of chocolate, pop-up restaurant style food, celebrate by the waterfront and enjoy our unique Cocoa-Chocolate Fashion Show showcasing our local designers. Silent Charity Auction and Closing Remarks, live music and party the night away!
